HYMN 4

Come, Living God, When Least Expected

GREETING

Carla Arevalo Carbajal

L: Siblings in the Spirit, come in, and know the goodness of God's love!

C: Enter into this sanctuary of rest and healing.

L: Come in, and know this community of justice and joy.

C: Come in, and hear stories of hope and challenge;
drink of God's beauty and mercy!

L: Friends, gather and regather, from near and far,
enter anew into this space of wonder and grace,

All: and let us give our hearts to God's praise!

WORDS OF WELCOME

Dan Smith

ANTHEM

O Taste and See

Thomas Pavlechko

O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in God.

Fear the Lord, you saints of the Lord, for those who fear the Lord lack nothing.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and God's ears are open to their cry.

The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves those whose spirits are crushed.

O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in God.

CONFESSION

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

SUNG PRAYER

Lord, prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true.

With thanksgiving, I'll be a living sanctuary for you!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Please pray this prayer in words most meaningful to your heart.)

All: Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*SHARING BREAD AND CUP

All who seek to follow Jesus' way of justice, compassion and love are invited to partake of this feast. Please take now and eat; or if you are in the sanctuary, please approach one of the stations in the front or back to receive the elements. You may leave your empty juice glass in the tray provided before returning to your seat.

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

L: Let us give thanks!

All: Thank you, God, for life in the Spirit of Jesus – for gladness in this bread and cup, for love that cannot die, for peace the world cannot give,
for joy in the company of friends, for the splendors of creation, and for the mission of justice you have made our own.
Give us the gifts of this holy communion –
oneness of heart, love for neighbors, forgiveness of enemies, the will to serve you every day,
and risen life that never ends.
In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

First Church Land Acknowledgment

We, gathered here, acknowledge that we are meeting on land which has been the traditional ancestral homeland of the Massachusett people. We acknowledge that this land is unceded and remains sacred to the Massachusett, and to their close neighbors and relatives, the Nipmuc and Wampanoag peoples.

You can find a longer version of this acknowledgment here or by scanning the QR code to the right.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for healing and strength for Ann Riker’s brother Lyman Morrill, who is being tested and treated for a new area of cancer after surviving previous occurrences with treatment.
- We pray for the family and friends of Pauline Fennel. Pauline died at home on Tuesday, September 13, surrounded by her family.
- We pray for Alice Kidder, who is facing ongoing health challenges.
- We pray for Kirsten Manville’s father Keith, who is continuing his recovery from a serious fall.
- We pray for First Church Shelter staff, guests, and family members who are grieving the loss of Shelter guest George McKenna. George died unexpectedly in Harvard Square on Thursday, even as he was very close to getting housing. He will be deeply mourned.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer: Anita Anger; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones’s mother; Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn’s mother; Karen Anne Zee’s daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann’s sisters; and friend of Homeless Ministries Brian O’Donovan.
- We pray for those in the path of Hurricane Ian, including Cuba, South Central Florida, and the southeastern coast of the US. We pray for the safety of all engaging in recovery efforts.
- We pray for the people of Puerto Rico as they continue to face the brutal effects of Hurricane Fiona.
- We pray for the people of Haiti, where water, food, and fuel shortages are leading to widespread protests, violence, and civil unrest.
- We pray for the people of Iran, especially women, as anti-government protests continue, sparked by the death of Mahsa Amini, a 22-year-old Kurdish Iranian woman who was arrested by the Guidance Patrol because of an “improper hijab.”
- We pray for migrants caught up in the politicized actions of governors who are sending them across the country with no preparation or concern for their welfare. May our state and national leaders find ways forward that show respect and compassion for all persons fleeing their homes and seeking a better life.

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for the residents of Jackson, MS, who are experiencing a catastrophic water emergency stemming from years of neglect rooted in systemic racism.
- We pray for those experiencing the loss of vital reproductive rights across the nation, and all those who care about them, especially as threats of a national abortion ban loom.
- We pray for the people of Ukraine as they continue to live through war and heightened concern of escalation.
- We pray for all who are affected by COVID-19, especially for educators, healthcare personnel, and other essential workers.
- We pray for the 14 men who are finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter, and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding food and listening ears. We pray for all who are experiencing deprivation and hardship in these uncertain times.

In Memoriam

A memorial service for longtime, beloved First Church member Pauline Fennel will take place on All Saints Sunday, November 6, at 2:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary and via livestream with a reception to follow. Pauline died on Tuesday, September 13, 2022, following a year-long struggle with cancer.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Meet Ministerial Intern Carla Arevalo Carbajal

Carla is an international student from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, and identifies as a mestiza. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies with a minor in Pastoral Ministry from Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville, Tennessee. Carla is completing her Master's Degree in Divinity at Harvard Divinity School and is passionate about liberation theology, decolonial theory, and community life. Her biggest motivations are her family and friends that have supported her with so much love and care throughout her journey. Carla's favorite place is her home at Christmas; she also loves coffee, ice-cream, and plantains.

Often, Carla describes her life in ministry as a journey into discovering all the beautiful and magical worlds within Christianity, constantly referring to one of her favorite magical worlds in The Lord of The Rings. She is truly honored and excited to start this new part of her journey at First Church in Cambridge.

Refreshments on the Lawn and Zoom Coffee Hour Today at 12:00 p.m.

Join us in person or online for social connection and the making of new friends.

Fair Share Forum

Today, 12:15 - 1:00 p.m., Harter Room and via Zoom

Come meet with Jonathan Cohn, a policy director at Progressive Massachusetts and the MetroNorth Coordinator, to learn more about the Fair Share Amendment and how you can support this economic and climate justice initiative. If you are joining us on the retreat - don't worry! We will record the forum for anyone who is not able to make it. Fair Share is a proposed amendment that will appear on the Massachusetts ballot this November to tax 4% of the portion of a person's annual income over $1 million to fund public education and transportation in our state. More information is available at: <https://www.fairsharema.com/>

Family Night Reunion: NEW DATE!

Tuesday, October 4, 5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

The Parsonage, 44 Garden St.

For many years before 2020, First Church families with young children would gather on Tuesday evenings in Sage Hall for a simple pasta potluck dinner. Now, all those who participated in Tuesday Family Nights are warmly invited to a reunion!

Join us for pizza and potluck at the Parsonage on Tuesday, October 4, where we'll reconnect over a meal and consider what else we might need from each other and the wider First Church community. Bring your kids, if they are still bringable, or not. Bring a side dish or dessert to share, or not. Most importantly, bring yourself to catch up with other parents still on the journey, no matter the age of their children. RSVP to Will Erickson and/or Sarah Higginbotham so we can plan the pizza order!

FALL AT FIRST CHURCH

Where Are We Now?

Perspectives on the American Church

Sundays, October 9 & 16, 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.

Harter Room and via Zoom

Behind all of the headlines about religion in the United States and all of the threats of polarization and evidence of dwindling church membership, there are deeper stories to tell.

Picking up from our summer read of Bill McKibben's memoir,

The Flag, the Cross and the Station Wagon, we will look at the big picture of what researchers have learned about the strengths and weaknesses of American church life and what they've concluded about the future of mainline Protestantism. We will think together about what it all means for First Church and how we relate to that bigger story. First Church Deacon Peggy Bendroth will lead our exploration and discussion. Peggy is the former director of the Congregational Library and Archives, and a historian of American religion with an abiding interest in all of this—past, present, and future.

Harvard Square Faith Communities

& The Legacy of Slavery:

Landscape of Slavery Tours

Sunday, October 9 at 12:30 p.m.

OR Sunday, October 30 at 3:00 p.m.

The Sunken Garden at Radcliffe, 10 Garden St.

Drawing from the Report of the Presidential Committee on the Harvard & the Legacy of Slavery, this six-stop tour engages with the local geography of African and Indigenous enslavement in words, silence and stillness. Join us as we learn about those who were wrongly oppressed, enslaved, and buried here, but whose dignity and humanity we aim to acknowledge and honor during this exploration.

Reflective Conversations with Brent Coffin

on the Parables of Jesus

Tuesdays, beginning October 11, 7:15 - 8:45 a.m., via Zoom

In a new series of small group sessions via Zoom, Brent Coffin will lead as we share in weekly reflection about the parables of Jesus, bringing these ancient and often confounding stories into conversation with our own stories and lives. Meetings will start on Tuesday morning, October 11, from 7:15 a.m. to 8:45 a.m. A time of informal check-in will begin promptly at 7:15, followed by framing remarks from Brent, with space for intimate small group listening and sharing to follow.

FALL AT FIRST CHURCH

Women's Community Book Group

Tuesday, October 11, 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., via Zoom

Please join us, all FCC people who identify as women, to re-start our women's book club. We will be starting with Bernhard Schlink's The Reader, and we hope to have a lively discussion. Please bring a friend; newcomers are enthusiastically welcomed! If you have trouble finding the book, please contact Alex Steinert-Evoy; we'll do our best to get you a copy.

EcoFaith Book Group

Thursday, October 13, 5:00 - 6:00 p.m., via Zoom

You are warmly invited to join the Earth Stewardship group for their next EcoFaith Book Group meeting. Water Always Wins, Thriving in an Age of Doubt and Deluge examines the special role water plays in our lives as we negotiate droughts and downpours brought on by climate change. Author Erica Gies looks at the history, science, and meaning of water, and reports on special situations from around the world. Together, we will consider how our Christian faith intersects with the issues raised. All are welcome!

Sunday, October 30, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m
Margaret Jewett Hall

The Shelter Oversight Committee hopes you will make time to attend this year's Doris Beauvais Luncheon. The event commemorates and recommends the leadership and example of the late Doris Beauvais, a First Church member who, 35 years ago, played a crucial role in the First Church community's decision to open and support a shelter for homeless adults. The luncheon will be free; donations to support First Church Homeless Ministries will be gratefully accepted.

The 2022 Mitch Snyder Awards will also be presented. This year's recipients include:

- Chris Alba, Substance Use Initiative, Revere
- Kim Powers, Access Hope
- Mary Wheeler, Healthy Streets, Lynn
- Joe Freitas, First Church Shelter
- Nikki Bell, Living in Freedom Together, Worcester

Musical Exploration of the Psalms
Saturday, October 22 at 2:00 p.m.
Old South Church, Boston

Our friends at Old South Church invite us to this unique interactive event that uses live musical performances as a springboard for discussion about Scripture and faith.

Participants gather to hear world-premiere performances of brand-new musical compositions inspired by the Psalms, then join each other in conversation about the ways these pieces help us experience and understand Scripture. Almost like a “musical Bible study”, this spiritual formation event brings to life these ancient texts in meaningful and memorable ways.

This free event is open to all. No musical experience is necessary, just a willingness to open your hearts to Scripture in a new way!
