WORDS OF WELCOME

ANTHEM

Nearer, My God, to Thee

L. Mason/arr. G. Toole

*Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee, e'en though it be a cross that raiseth me;
still all my song would be, nearer, my God, to thee, nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee.*

Though like the wanderer, the sun gone down, darkness be over me, my rest a stone, yet in my dreams I'd be nearer, my God, to thee...

*There let the way appear, steps unto heaven; all that thou sendest me in mercy given;
angels to beckon me nearer, my God, to thee...*

*Then, with my waking thoughts bright wit they praise, out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise;
so by my woes to be nearer, my God, to thee...*

Or if on joyful wing cleaving the sky, sun, moon, and stars forgot, upward I fly, still all my song shall be, nearer, my God, to thee...

we confess the times when our words and actions to love you, our neighbor, and ourselves.

God, tend to all the places within us that need healing and peace, and fill us with your hope, strength, and wisdom.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

*Bring bread again, the gift of earth and human hands creating.
Rough crust again, and falling crumbs, our hands a basket waiting.
Bring bread again, and eat the love of God unhesitating.*

Dark stream again, the ripened grapes a scented grace bestowing.
Bring wine again, and drink the bliss of Christ-life overflowing.*

*Bring us again, all shed of fear, to eat unveiled together the memory feast of pain and joy in mercy, now as ever.
Bring us again, and feel the draw of Spirit's gentle tether.*

*Bring bread again, and pass it 'round the circle wide and daring.
Remember Jesus, first from death, all hurt and shame repairing.
A feast and friend for friend and foe he'll make us by this sharing.*

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for Kathy Williams, who is grieving the loss of her husband Jim. Though Jim had been experiencing health challenges, he died unexpectedly on Tuesday, August 23.
- We pray for Nancy O’Connell, who is grieving the loss of her beloved husband Steve. Steve was diagnosed with cancer in July and died on Friday, August 19.
- We pray for Kirsten Manville’s father Keith, who is recovering from a serious fall.
- We pray for Devin Hansen’s Aunt Ellen, who is in hospital recovering from intestinal surgery.
- We pray for Heather Stanford, who is grieving the loss of her older “sister” Judy, who died recently of glioblastoma.
- We pray for Anita Anger as she is treated for lymphoma and ongoing heart trouble.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer: Pauline Fennel; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones’s mother; Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn’s mother; Karen Anne Zee’s daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann’s sisters; a current First Church Shelter guest; and friend of Homeless Ministries Brian O’Donovan.
- We pray for all who are facing severe, dangerous heat, droughts, and fires in Massachusetts, across the U.S., in Europe, and around the world. We also pray for those experiencing intense flooding in Pakistan and other parts of the world.
- We pray for all who have been affected by the monkeypox outbreak around the world, and for our public health officials, that they might mitigate the harm done to our public and individual health. We pray that all may access medical care without shame.
- We pray for those experiencing the loss of vital reproductive rights across the nation, and all those who care about them. We also pray for compassion, wisdom, grace, and courage, as the public discourse around abortion may cause each of us to wrestle with our own thoughts and feelings surrounding the complexities of this issue.
- We pray for the people of Ukraine and for people in war-torn areas around the world. We pray for all troops and civilians, and for bordering countries receiving refugees.
- We pray for all who are affected by COVID-19—those experiencing symptoms, those grieving the loss of loved ones, and those awaiting vaccines and boosters. We pray with and for anxious hearts, especially for educators, healthcare personnel, and other essential workers.
- We pray with hope at the news of climate action legislation recently passed at both the federal and state levels.
- We pray for the 14 men who are finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter, and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding food and listening ears. We pray for all who are experiencing deprivation and hardship in these uncertain times.

Shall We Gather?

Fall 2022 and Regathering Sunday

Hybrid Worship at 11:00 a.m. and Luncheon at 12:15 p.m.

And let us consider each other carefully for the purpose of spurring one another toward love and good words, not giving up meeting together... but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the day approaching.

- Hebrews 10: 24-25

This fall, we are excited to be more intentional about how we gather! In worship, on retreat, and in our small group life, we will bring some First Church wonder and curiosity to this ancient, yet timely theme. In a season when many are already re-imagining what it means to gather, we ask:

How do we gather?

- What makes for good gatherings, anyway?
- How can we be more intentional about our purpose for meetings?
- How do we open and close our times together?
- How do we ensure there are chances to share our stories and lives with another?
- Who are the hosts, really, and who are the guests, especially when we are at church?
- What attention to detail might make our gatherings all the more powerful, memorable, and true?

Priya Parker, author of *The Art of Gathering: How We Meet and Why It Matters*, offers helpful tips on some of the above that we are eager to explore together. Not surprisingly, our scripture and tradition have a lot to say about this, too! Join us on Regathering Sunday, September 11 for Hybrid Worship at 11:00 a.m. and for a Regathering luncheon on the lawn at 12:15 p.m., as we gather in the Spirit. Come Sunday, and come this fall—let's make some First Church art of gathering together.

Family Night Reunion

Tuesday, September 13, 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., The Parsonage, 44 Garden St.

For many years before 2020, First Church families with young children would gather on Tuesday evenings in Sage Hall for a simple pasta potluck dinner. Parents would linger over dinner as kids raced around our basement playspace on tricycles or built towers with blocks. Deeper reflection and connection amongst parents would take place during seasonal small group offerings during this time, including Bible study and book group discussion. Now, all those who participated in Tuesday Family Nights are warmly invited to a reunion! Read more

Tuesday, September 20, 3:00 - 4:15 p.m., Harter Room & via Zoom

In this current season of regathering, let's again wrestle with the big questions together as we let God's presence and this community hold us. Let's learn together how we can find dignity, courage, grace, hope, and peace in our aging and in our dying. We will offer spiritual readings, time for conversation and reflection, along with a few practical resources for end-of-life planning. Folks who are new to the group are welcome to these gatherings. This group may continue on a monthly basis for ongoing support. Please email Lexi or Dan if you have questions.
