WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE...

Grounded in God • Growing in Community • Acting in Love

These past weeks have brought home to all of us the vital importance of working together to slow and limit the spread of Coronavirus. We know we are called to be a community of faith, not fear. We also know we are called to care for the most vulnerable in our midst, to be good stewards of our staff and resources, and to be good citizens of the wider community.

Under normal circumstances, people of faith would care for each other by drawing close together. It's what we do. It's who we are. In times of loss or threat, we respond by coming together to pray and to sing, to hug and hold each other tight.

Pandemics are different. During an outbreak such as the one we are facing now, we are called to care for each other by moving farther apart, creating a holy buffer of social distance. We do this not only for our own safety and the safety of the people around us, but in loving stewardship to our wider world.

Even when apart, we are not alone. God is with us, in every heartbeat, every breath: strengthening, comforting, and upholding us. Christ is with us, walking beside us, sharing our trials, speaking peace to our fears. The Spirit is with us, uniting us one to another across the barrier of physical distance.

These are temporary measures only. They won't last forever. We will rejoice and celebrate all the more when we are able to come back together, to share stories of what it was like, to laugh, to cry, and to share hugs and handshakes again. Until then, day by day, let's hold one another in prayer.

*GREETING

Nancy Kilburn

L: Come home to the presence of God in this time,

C: as we pause to drink in the comfort of community.

L: Come home to the center of your spirit,

C: resting in the stillness of prayer.

L: Come home to the hope of expectation,

C: and prepare our hearts for holy surprises.

L: Come home to connection and resilience,

C: for we are the body of Christ.

L: Come home to this space of belonging and becoming,

C: for God's presence is here in this sacred time and space.

CONFESSING

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

SILENCE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

L: Let us pray for healing, pardon and peace:

C: Before you, O God, and before one another,
we confess the harm we have brought on our lives,
the lives of others, and the life of the world.
Forgive us, we pray, for what we have done and what we have left undone.

(cont'd. on next page)

Lead us toward wholeness, renew us,
and enable us to grow in love and in faith.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

SHARING THE FEAST

INVITATION

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

REMEMBERING JESUS

- L: Now, O God, with grateful joy, we remember Jesus—his daring love, his open table.
(silence)
- L: Setting aside our wisdom, our will, and our words,
emptying our hearts and bringing nothing in our hands,
- C: We come at his invitation, yearning for the healing, the holding,
the accepting, the forgiving,
which Christ alone can offer.

*WORDS OF INSTITUTION

- L: We remember that on the night on which he was betrayed, while he was sitting at supper with his friends.
Jesus took a piece of bread and broke it.
- C: He gave it to the disciples, saying,
“This is my body, given for you!”
- L: Later, after they had eaten, he took the cup.
- C: He said, “This cup is the new relationship with God, made possible because of me.
Drink this all of you, to remember me!”

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

THE LORD’S PRAYER

(Please pray this prayer in words most meaningful to your heart.)

- All: Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven,
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SHARING BREAD AND CUP

All who seek to follow Jesus' way of justice, compassion and love are invited to partake of this feast. May there be no barriers to participation in this meal!

THANKSGIVING

L: Let us give thanks!

C: Thank you, God, for life in the Spirit of Jesus – for gladness in this bread and cup, for love that cannot die, for peace the world cannot give, for joy in the company of friends,
for the splendors of creation,
and for the mission of justice you have made our own.
Give us the gifts of this holy communion – oneness of heart, love for neighbors, forgiveness of enemies, the will to serve you every day,
and risen life that never ends.
In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

WORDS and MUSIC: African-American spiritual

PEACE LIKE A RIVER
77.10 D

Spirituals draw heavily from Old Testament imagery, including 'peace like a river' from Isaiah 48:18. The New Testament also provided imagery for this song in the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy and peace (Galatians 5:22).

SERMON HYMN

Let Us Break Bread Together

1. Let us break bread to- geth-er on our knees; (on our knees)
2. Let us drink wine to- geth-er on our knees;
3. Let us praise God to- geth-er on our knees;

Let us break bread to- geth-er on our knees; (on our knees)
Let us drink wine to- geth-er on our knees;
Let us praise God to- geth-er on our knees;

Refrain

When I fall on my knees, with my face to the ris- ing sun,

O Lord, have mer- cy on me. (on me)

WORDS: African-American spiritual
MUSIC: African-American spiritual, arr. Carlton R. Young, 1964, adapt.

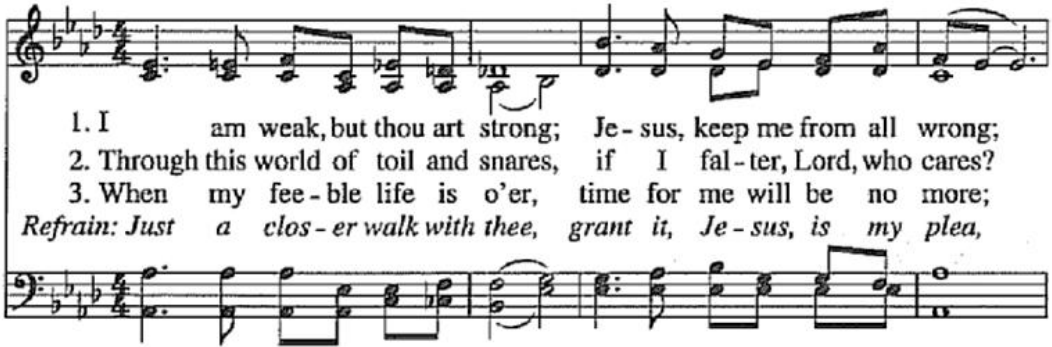

LET US BREAK BREAD
10 10 w. refrain

The earliest version of this spiritual consisted of stanza three, used to call slaves in Virginia to secret, unlawful meetings. The communion stanzas were added after the Civil War.

dai - ly walk - ing close to thee: let it be, dear Lord, let it be.

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

- For Gail Breeze and her family as they grieve the unexpected loss of Dudne Breeze on July 5.
- For all students, parents, teachers, administrators, and support staff trying to navigate the seemingly impossible terrain of school re-opening decisions and plans. May they have strength and wisdom to balance competing demands for ongoing education, caregiving, and safety.
- For our cities and our nation during this time of reckoning with historic and ongoing violence against Black and Indigenous persons and persons of color. We pray for all who are protesting, including those in Portland, Oregon who are facing extreme policing measures. We pray for a new birth of justice and healing throughout our land. We pray also for all who are continuing to grieve the recent killings of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, Rayshard Brooks, and so many others.
- For all who are grieving the loss of loved ones due to Covid-19; for all those who are ill with COVID-19 and their families; and for all of us who are navigating this strange new world, that we may receive God's comfort, strength, and peace.
- For all essential workers, who continue to put themselves at risk to care for the sick and most vulnerable, maintain our food supply, deliver supplies, keep our public services running, and lead us through this crisis.
- For African Americans and communities of color around the country that are facing disproportionately high rates of coronavirus death and infection, revealing entrenched inequalities in resources and access to healthcare. And for Asian Americans as they face unwarranted discrimination and hostility during this Covid-19 pandemic.
- For all who are experiencing unemployment or underemployment during this crisis, including undocumented workers who cannot find a safety net in our government's response.
- For all who are in treatment for cancer: Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn's mother; Amy Golodet, Jonathan New's sister-in-law; Becky Collet, Karen Anne Zee's daughter; Stewart Bailey, Karen Anne Zee's son-in-law; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters; Katie, Moana Bentin's sister; and former First Church member Nancy Sanders.
- For the 14 men who are finding care and residence in our First Church Shelter and for the guests of the Friday Café, who are experiencing worsening deprivation and hardship in this time of disruption; that may they know warmth, compassion, and companionship.
- For those who seek sanctuary in houses of worship around the country, including our partner University Lutheran Church in Harvard Square. We pray for tranquility for immigrants who live in constant fear and anxiety. And we pray for all who are working for a just and compassionate future for immigrants and asylum seekers.
- For God's strength as we combat the realities of the climate crisis. May God empower us and our leaders to take bold steps, personally and politically, to care for God's creation and for the poor around the world who are most affected by our inaction.

NEW TO FIRST CHURCH? Have you just begun joining us for online worship? Please consider filling out this “virtual visitor card” so that we might reach out and connect with you about our community.

SUMMER SCHEDULE Worship begins at 10:00 a.m. through August. We are offering a mix of livestream and pre-recorded worship. We’re excited to continue experimenting with the possibilities surrounding virtual services, and we hope you will continue to worship with us online until we can all be together again in the sanctuary. The church building continues to be locked, but is staffed by sextons. We are offering building access from 12:00 to 4:00 p.m., Monday - Friday. If you need access to the building, please email Director of Operations Kirsten Manville and give prior notice of the day and time you would like to enter. This is both for contact tracing purposes and also to let the sextons know to expect you. Office Assistant Bruce Dillenbeck will also be in the church office for a few hours every Tuesday and Friday afternoon throughout the summer, answering the phone, sorting the mail, and doing other tasks that cannot be done from home. As Massachusetts and Cambridge continue to update their reopening plans, we will continue to closely monitor their guidelines and recommendations. Any change to the above information will be communicated in a timely manner, both here in the bulletin and via the First Glance E-newsletter. Questions? Please email Kirsten (parishadmin@firstchurchcambridge.org).

PLANNING FOR THE FALL Living through a pandemic is not something most of us could have predicted, or even thought of as a possibility. We have all been learning as we go—adjusting to this new way of interacting, doing, and being. One thing has become clear over these last months: this pandemic will be with us for a long time yet. While we once may have harbored thoughts of it being a blip in our lives of a few weeks or months, we now know that pandemic living will be the norm for months to come. In recognition of this, First Church staff are homing in on a structure for our Sunday schedule that provides remote programming, worship, and fellowship/connection. If at some point this fall, we find that limited in-person gatherings seem feasible, we will plan to “add on” in-person components, but not alter the remote access. Remote will be our default; in-person will be an added bonus. We are working to ensure that, even though we need to remain physically distanced, our connection as a congregation remains strong and is felt deeply by each of you. We look forward to sharing new and innovative ways of doing worship, church school, adult formation, fellowship, and more. Please keep an eye out for more information in future bulletins and in the Fall issue of EVENT.

"WHAT ABOUT PUBLIC SAFETY?" A CONVERSATION WITH REV. ADAM DYER Monday, August 10, 7:00 p.m., via Zoom Many of us are interested in a deeper conversation on the national call to reimagine policing, hold police departments accountable for violence, and reallocate resources to other forms of public safety service. Old Cambridge Baptist Church has invited Rev. Dyer from First Parish to engage in a robust discussion of public policy, activism, and faith in relation to policing and public safety. First Church members have been welcomed to tune in! To join click here or use the following information:

BECOMING AN ANTI-RACIST CHURCH

Prayer, Reflection, and Action

Summer 2020

The following statement expresses First Church's intentions and commitments for the summer of 2020. We join with a global outcry against recent and past events of violence against black and brown persons. This statement builds on several years of concerted efforts to raise our self-awareness, build relationships, and act towards racial justice and healing. We approach this work with hearts open to listening, learning, and change.

White silence is violence.
Black Lives Matter

First Church affirms that Black Lives Matter and Indigenous Lives Matter.

We celebrate the gifts, presence, and leadership of persons of color within First Church and beyond.

We recognize that the problem of racism is a white person's problem and that this is white people's work.

Becoming an anti-racist church means that we are determined not merely to raise our consciousness of racism, but to actively call out and intentionally work for change.

We do this work because we know our individual and collective spiritual health, transformation, and liberation depend on it.

We do this work relying on God's help and knowing that we cannot do it alone.

We invite you to commit serious energy and sacrificial love to at least two of these levels of work.

SOUL LEVEL

☪ Say Their Names. North Carolina Laureate Jaki Shelton Green mourns George Floyd and other lives that were taken with Oh My Brother, a work of spoken word and images.

☪ Learn more about how to act on your belief that Black Lives Matter.

CONGREGATIONAL LEVEL

☪ By the end of August, over 50 First Church people will have engaged in Faith & Life groups looking at issues of race. There will be further opportunities for congregational-level work in the fall.

COMMUNITY LEVEL

☪ Follow the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization on social media to follow the progress of our efforts with legislators on Beacon Hill. Re-post and re-tweet GBIO to amplify the message.

☪ Consider following FCC member Alice Kidder's suggestion to begin your work on police accountability in your town by creating a list of questions about your town's police force. Then find out if grassroots organizations working on the issue already exist and get connected. Alice has joined "Watertown Citizens for Black Lives" and is collaborating with their Police Accountability subcommittee. Can't find a citizens' organization in your town? Consider starting one!

WAYS TO SUPPORT OUR WIDER COMMUNITY

DAY SHELTER AND FOOD DISTRIBUTION UPDATE The City of Cambridge is continuing food and funding so that the meal distribution program from the Tower Room here at First Church will continue through the summer. Since many community meal programs were shut down due to the pandemic, as many as 120 meals (prepared by local restaurants) are distributed, 5 days a week, from First Church. The city also has committed to continue funding to allow the First Church Shelter to remain open on a 24-hour basis through the summer. First Church's Shelter staff, Oversight Committee, Director of Operations, and Facilities Manager are working together to identify ways to ensure that this essential service is able to continue without disrupting the return of Newtowne School and others who make use of the building in the weeks and months ahead.

COVID-19 HOUSING STABILIZATION PROGRAM The City of Cambridge has announced the creation of a COVID-19 Housing Stabilization Program to provide short-term financial assistance to individuals and families in Cambridge who are experiencing housing instability due to the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Residents are encouraged to apply for the COVID-19 Housing Stabilization Program online at www.cambridgema.gov/housingfund.

YOUR FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS ARE NEEDED AS MUCH AS EVER! And our neighbors need YOUR help. Please add some items to your own shopping lists: canned fruits/vegetables, cereal, proteins, sauce for pasta, feminine products. No fresh food, please, and no opened or expired containers. Leave your donations in the box on Hilary's front porch at 30 Winslow St., Cambridge, a quick .75 mile from First Church, just off Sherman St. where it diverges from Garden St. She will see that they are delivered to the pantry on the one day a month that it is open. Thanks for remembering our neighbors who are struggling in these hard times.

THE FRIDAY CAFÉ BAGGED LUNCH SIGNUP HAS OPENINGS! Sign up to prepare 10 bagged lunches for hungry neighbors some upcoming Friday by visiting: www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d45aaa628ab9-friday to claim your spot. Many thanks!

VOLUNTEER TO BAKE SOME GOODIES FOR OUR EVENING MEAL PROGRAM First Church is now serving 500 meals a week to help feed hungry neighbors! If you would like to make a few dozen sweet treats to hand out at one of our evening meals on Monday, Wednesday, Saturday, or Sunday, please visit <https://signup.com/go/DCsUUei> to sign up. Treats can be dropped off at the Tower Room door at 4:30 on any of those nights. Thank you!

St. Mark's Cathedral in Seattle, Compline: July 26, 2020

Sung by the Women's Compline Choir

<https://saintmarks.org/worship/live-stream/>

I was unaware that St. Mark's has a women's compline choir. While the first piece isn't spot on, keep listening, because this is beautiful. If you've been enjoying the compline liturgies from St. Mark's, you could keep track of the links, so you have a different one to listen to each night of the week. I like playing them when I go to bed. Sometimes I pray during; at other times I just listen, and often I drift off into sleep.
