

*Awake, my soul! Awake, O harp and lyre!
I will awake the dawn.
I will give thanks to you, O Lord,
I will sing praises to you among the nations,
for your steadfast love is as high as the heavens;
your faithfulness extends to the clouds.*

COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for Art Anger, who had a hemorrhagic stroke recently and is beginning a long road of rehabilitation and recovery.
- We pray for Karen Anne Zee's beloved aunt Shirley Smith, who had a series of strokes recently and who is in precarious health.
- We pray for Carol Wilson-Braun as she deals with a slow-progressing motor neuron disorder.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer: Joanne Paul; Bridget Melle, Rich Goode's sister; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones's mother; Penny Kilburn, Nancy Kilburn's mother; Karen Anne Zee's daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters; and friend of Homeless Ministries Brian O'Donovan.
- We pray for Faith Lutheran Church after its building was destroyed in a fire on Easter Sunday evening. The fire is now being investigated as an act of arson. We pray for their pastor, Rev. Robin Lutjohann, as well as the staff and community impacted by this devastating loss.
- We pray for the people of Sudan and for an end to escalating and deadly violence between warring political and military factions in Khartoum and surrounding areas, leading to evacuation efforts by the international community. We continue to pray for all those in global regions impacted by the violence of war.
- We pray for all whose lives are touched by our nation's raging epidemic of gun violence. We pray for ongoing efforts to create lasting change in our country's gun safety laws.
- We pray for the wellbeing and safety of our trans siblings as they face the impact of hundreds of bills seeking to restrict transgender health care access and gender expression that have been introduced—and, in some cases, have passed into law—in state houses across the country.
- We pray for our rapidly warming planet and for redoubled efforts to reduce fossil fuel emissions.
- We pray for all those affected by police violence and for all those protesting and working at the local, state, and federal level to end police brutality, which disproportionately affects persons and communities of color.
- We pray for peace with justice in Palestine and Israel amidst ongoing political tensions.
- We pray for those most affected by changes in reproductive rights: for all those struggling with the moral and political complexities of pregnancy and childbearing, and for patients and healthcare providers who are now unable to give and receive care in their own states.
- We pray for the 14 men finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter; and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding resources and listening ears.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

First Church Treasures from the Past

Today and Sunday, May 7, 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.

Harter Room and via Zoom

Come and learn the fascinating story of the Cockerel weathervane that tops our church tower. The great gilded rooster was made in 1721 by famous Boston coppersmith Shem Drowne and was already 150 years old when it landed in Cambridge in 1873. Today, Lindsay Miller tells the cockerel's story. Next Sunday, Kate Judd, Chris Reynolds, and other members of the First Church Archives team reveal the once-forgotten history of the Archives and how some remarkable 17th and 18th century documents ended up in the collection. Join us to hear history come alive!

Celebrations In Morning Worship Today

Good news! First Church is being recognized for our efforts in reaching Level One of the Southern New England Conference UCC (SNEUCC) Green Congregation Challenge. Paul Dale from the SNEUCC Environmental Team will join us in Morning Worship to present us with an award as we lift up our shared journey toward addressing the climate crisis and environmental injustice.

More good news! Former Pastoral Associate Jaz Buchanan is joining us for the Green Challenge celebration, along with her new baby! We are so grateful to Jaz and to Jim Brown for their recent efforts to mobilize our First Church Earth Stewardship Team.

Even more good news! Former longtime members Dick and Gay Harter are also be with us, and they will receive a Cockerel tile acknowledging their 50+ years of involvement at First Church.

Ongoing Crisis in Israel/Palestine: Challenges and Opportunities on the 75th Anniversary of the Nakba

Today, 12:30 - 1:30 p.m., Harter Room & via Zoom

May 2023 will mark the 75th anniversary of what Palestinians call the Nakba, or catastrophe: the founding of the modern State of Israel and the accompanying mass displacement and violence experienced by Palestinians. Grounded in its just peace commitment, First Church members are invited to hear from special guest Hilary Rantisi, Associate Director of the Religion, Conflict, and Peace Initiative at Harvard Divinity School. A Palestinian-American, Hilary formerly served as Director of the Middle East Initiative at Harvard's Kennedy School and as a grassroots activist in Jerusalem. Hilary will share her family's experience of the Nakba and offer an update on the current challenges to, and opportunities for, advancing just peace in Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territories.

EASTERTIDE AT FIRST CHURCH

MEN'S BREAKFAST

a monthly gathering
for sharing our stories and reflections

Men's Breakfast

This Saturday, May 6, 8:00 - 9:30 a.m., Harter Room

All who identify as men at First Church are invited to join us in person on Saturday morning for our monthly gathering, a time to reflect and rejoice. If you would like to be added to the Men's Breakfast email list to receive reminders of these gatherings, please contact Peter Byerly: p.byerly@comcast.net

Many Helping Hands Food Pantry: Donations Accepted Next Sunday, May 7

Holding Hilary Hopkins in our hearts, First Church continues to provide contributions to the Many Helping Hands Food Pantry. The volunteer-run, donation-driven pantry offers a grocery shopping experience on the second Saturday of each month. On an April Saturday, the 60+ customers were elders, veterans, families with children, and native speakers of Haitian, Portuguese and Ukrainian—many hold several of these identities. Helping Hands shared that the following donations are especially appreciated by their customer community at this time: family/kid-friendly items (e.g. healthy snacks, meals to bridge weekends until senior & school lunches resume), hygiene products (e.g. incontinence, feminine pads, no tampons), spices, and, where possible, items bought in bulk/case, as this supports customers on that particular morning having a similar shopping experience. No diapers, please. First Church donations can be left in the large baskets in the Narthex on the first Sunday of each month, which is next Sunday, May 7. Questions or concerns? Please contact Steve Weller or Stefanie Haug, our new First Church food pantry liaisons.

Newcomers Meet and Greet

Sunday, May 7, 12:15 - 1:15 p.m., Hastings Common

Are you feeling new to First Church? Or are you a member interested in meeting someone new to our community? All are warmly invited to meet up directly after worship in Hastings Common, just through the Sanctuary door by the Children's Book Corner. Some of what you can expect: friendly faces, new friends?, questions answered, snacks, and an informal atmosphere for conversation.

EASTERTIDE AT FIRST CHURCH

Preparing for Joining Sunday, May 7

Have you been thinking about exploring membership at First Church in Cambridge? Do you have a growing sense that First Church is where you belong? Have you recently enjoyed meeting new folks in our community and are looking to make it official? You are in luck! Please save the date for our next Joining Sunday in our Morning Worship next Sunday May 7. If you are interested in joining, please submit a short bio about yourself to Lexi Boudreaux by Tuesday, May 2, at 10:00 a.m.

Recycling, Compost, and Trash at First Church: A Quick Primer

It has been wonderful to be able to gather in person again for fellowship, formation, and meetings, while also partaking in refreshments, snacks, treats, and even full meals. Because gatherings with food are back in full swing, we thought it would be a good idea to remind everyone of the proper ways to dispose of waste here at First Church.

Recycling (blue containers)

metal cans and foil
glass bottles and jars
plastic containers
paper and cardboard

Compost (green containers)

food waste
used tea bags, coffee grounds & filters paper towels, napkins & muffin papers
certified compostable plates, cups, utensils

Trash (black containers)

After you have recycled and composted what you can, what's left can go in the trash.

Thank you very much for disposing of your refuse in the proper containers. Not only is it in line with our Earth Stewardship goals, but both the City of Cambridge and our compost company will fine the church if trash is mixed in with the recycling or compost. Questions? Want to learn more about refuse disposal at First Church? Contact Director of Operations Kirsten Manville.

Do you want to follow the hyperlinks, but you're holding a paper bulletin in your hand? Use your phone's camera to hover over the QR code marked "scan me;" this will take you to the Members & Friends page of our website, where you'll find the bulletin online, as well as links to news, events, and more.

SPRING FAITH & LIFE GROUPS

Register for a Spring Faith & Life Group

It's time to sign up for the last round of Faith & Life Groups in this program year! Led by First Church members, Faith & Life Groups are designed to encourage meaningful connections through shared interests. Faith & Life Groups involve making a short-term commitment (a single session to several weeks, depending on the group) to something that might be delightful, deep, or even transformational. At the same time, you can get to know First Church friends who share your interests. We need each other now more than ever. If you are looking for a way to dip your toes into the life of our church and stay connected outside of Sunday Worship, this is for you!

Registration Deadline is Sunday, May 14.

Questions?

Please contact Transitional Minister Lexi Boudreaux or the leader of the group directly.

**Please sign up to participate in a faith and life group here.**

View a show of twenty paintings of Jesus Christ on display in Margaret Jewett Hall and participate in an hour-long discussion of the visual and other arts in your faith and life.

SPRING FAITH & LIFE GROUPS

Reparations: Approaching the Journey with a Beginner’s Mind

If you’re curious about what reparations mean and what possible models are out there for the practice, and/or looking for a place to talk about the many feelings that come to the surface when thinking about taking steps to grapple with the very real spiritual and physical impacts of the practice, this conversation series is for you! Come with your questions, come with your fears and uncertainties, come with your open hearts to explore this sacred practice of repentance and relinquishment. Using Reparations: A Christian Call for Repentance and Repair by Duke L. Kwon and Gregory Thompson as a resource and a guide, we will explore a basic understanding of reparations, particularly focusing on what it means for us as Christians. We will bring select quotes and concepts to the discussion, so reading the whole book is not a requirement for participation.

Dates/Times: Wednesdays, May 31, June 7 (and maybe 14), 6:30 – 7:30 p.m., via Zoom

Leader: Abby Shuman

All We Can Save* Circle: A Climate Grief Small Group

Are you hungry for deeper dialogue about the climate crisis and building community around solutions? Join us in reading All We Can Save, an anthology of writings by 60 women at the forefront of the climate movement who are harnessing truth, courage, and solutions to lead humanity forward. This group will function as an All We Can Save Circle and will be a facilitated discussion that makes room for processing and discussing climate grief and leadership in community.

Find more information about the All We Can Save Project and Circles

Dates/Times: TBD based on registrants’ availability

Leader: Lexi Boudreaux

EASTERTIDE AT FIRST CHURCH

Fabric Dyeing and Stitching Workshops May 13, 16, and 30, 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Margaret Jewett Hall and the Landing

Join textile artists Sarah Fujiwara, Gail Willett and Carol Anne Grotrain for the next steps on our journey of creating Wade in the Water: Remembering and Honoring Enslaved Africans and Native Americans at First Church in Cambridge. At these workshops, participants will learn about traditional fabric-dyeing methods, assist in stenciling African Adinkra symbols, and begin the embroidery of background images to which we will add the embroidered names of those we remember and honor. Space is limited; please RSVP to Sarah Fujiwara for any or all of the workshops (sarahfujiwara@gmail.com).

LOOKING AHEAD

Children's Sunday and The First Church Musicale Sunday, June 11

On the second Sunday of June, it is our custom to celebrate the children's formation programs of the church in a Children's Sunday worship service. We are led in liturgy by younger voices, and we recognize our 4th graders with their own Bibles as they "graduate" from Godly Play. We lift up the volunteer teachers and helpers who make our Church School run, and we take time to ask wondering questions about the stories central to our faith and practice.

And this year after worship, we are bringing back an old favorite: The First Church Musicale! All ages are invited to gather in Margaret Jewett Hall for an indoor picnic luncheon, followed by a time of sharing our creative talents with one another. Sign up to offer a (short) performance that showcases your skills in music, theater, dance, circus, poetry, stand-up comedy, or quirky tricks. Questions? Contact Sarah Higginbotham. Now, go start rehearsing!

Staffing Transitions

We have sad news and glad news about our staffing plans!

First, the sad part. As was announced at our recent Congregational Meetings, our fabulous Transitional Minister's 2-year term is coming to an end in the coming months. Lexi Boudreaux will be leaving us on August 31, but not before we celebrate the remarkable gifts she has brought these last five years, beginning with her time as a Ministerial Intern and a Pastoral Associate from Harvard Divinity School. We will have a congregational celebration of her ministry after church on June 18 while we are still gathered, leaving time throughout the summer for further goodbyes.

The glad news is that both Carla Carbajal and Ahmaad Edmund have agreed to stay with us for the 2023-24 program year as half-time Pastoral Associates to share their extraordinary gifts and to help us cover Lexi's myriad responsibilities. We are grateful that this plan will afford us the time and resources needed to set First Church on a more sustainable financial path as we pursue our goal of calling a full-time minister of color. We are grateful beyond words to Lexi, Ahmaad, and Carla, and to the rest of our staff and community ministers for their dedication and agility, to our lay leaders, and to our entire faith community for joining us in this ongoing discernment of our still evolving staffing model.
