COMMUNITY PRAYERS

- We pray for Ginny Harlan's son Michael and his family, who live in Louisville, as Michael has just been diagnosed with Mantle Cell Lymphoma
- We mourn the loss of beloved First Church member Anita Anger, who was remembered and celebrated here yesterday in a memorial service. We hold her daughter Martha and family in our prayers.
- We pray for Krysia Burnham, who is having hip surgery this Tuesday.
- We pray for Alice Kidder, who is now recovering in a rehab facility after an extended hospital stay for various serious medical issues.
- We pray for Jim Brown, who was hospitalized for pneumonia while traveling in South Africa.
- We pray for Jennifer Petrallia, who is suffering from debilitating anxiety and depression.
- We pray for all who are in treatment for cancer and other ongoing health challenges: Carol Wilson-Braun, who is managing ALS; Jim Rae, Ami Brenner's father; Ellen Smith, Devin Hansen's aunt; Judith Semmler, Alice Napoleon Jones's mother; Karen Anne Zee's daughter Becky Collet, and her sons-in-law, Denis Collet and Stewart Bailey; Beth and Polly, Ann McCann's sisters.
- We pray for all those in Lewiston, ME, and the surrounding towns, as they continue to cope with their shared experience of a tragic mass shooting. We continue to pray and advocate for common sense national gun control legislation.
- We pray for workers who are unemployed, laid off, or displaced. We pray for immigrants waiting for work permits or desperate for work, and for union workers who are striking for better pay and working conditions.
- We continue to pray for all impacted by and recovering from recent natural and climate related disasters, most recently the hurricane in Mexico. We continue to pray for our rapidly warming planet and for redoubled efforts to reduce fossil fuel emissions.
- We pray for all those impacted by the violence of war and political upheaval, including in Ukraine, Sudan, and Haiti. As we prepare to welcome two refugees through the Welcome Corps, we pray for all political and climate refugees and migrants who make often life-threatening border crossings over land and open water.
- We pray for the wellbeing and safety of our trans and gender non-conforming siblings as they face the impact of vitriolic public discourse and of state laws that restrict and criminalize transgender health care, personal expression, and wider LGBTQ+ education.
- We pray for those most affected by changes in reproductive rights: for all those struggling with the moral and political complexities of pregnancy and childbearing, and for patients and healthcare providers who are unable to give and receive care in their own states.
- We pray for the 14 men finding sustenance and protection in our First Church Shelter; and we pray for the guests of the Friday Café, who are finding resources and listening ears.

TODAY AT FIRST CHURCH

Prayer for Israel and Palestine

We pray for an end to the war and the heartwrenching violence in Israel and Palestine. We pray for all hostages and their families; for those living in daily fear for their and their loved ones' safety; and for all who are grieving the thousands of deaths of Israelis, Palestinians, and others in Israel, Gaza, and around the world, including members of our congregation who have close ties with people who are currently in the area.

We decry the horrifically violent Hamas attacks against Israel on October 7. We decry retaliation that involves violence against civilians, including deprivation of water, fuel, and food in Gaza. We pray for redoubled diplomatic efforts to address the escalating humanitarian crisis in Gaza and the ongoing occupation of Palestinian territories. We continue to pray for a just peace in Israel and Palestine and throughout the region. We also pray for Jews and Muslims, nearby and around the world, who are facing increased threats and acts of anti-Semitic and anti-Muslim discrimination, hatred, and violence.

We pray for ourselves, that we will be faithful, compassionate, and open to God's love and leading, and to all whom we encounter through these tension-filled times. Across whatever division or disagreement, may our words and deeds seek to honor the humanity and God-given dignity of every human being.

Introducing Our New Members

Emma Marie Duke has been coming to First Church since August 2022, when she moved here from the other Cambridge (UK)! She grew up in the Lutheran church; consequently, her favorite part of church is singing. She can sometimes be found in the Choir with her husband Owen. Starting in early 2024, Emma will be leading the Faith on Tap series for Young Adults.

Owen Duke has been coming to First Church since January 2022, when his wife found it (from afar) on Google maps. He grew up in an agnostic family and started believing in high school. He can often be found in the Choir with his lovely wife Emma. Owen occasionally rings the bell to mark the beginning of our Morning Worship.

Mackenzie Dwyer is a senior Psychology and Religious Studies student at UMass Boston. She is applying to divinity school, where she hopes to study environmental chaplaincy, theodicy, theologies of liberation, and the population dynamics of climate change. In her free time, Mackenzie enjoys walks in nature, time spent with family and friends, and reading texts that help her consider how the Gospel might be applied to life here and now. She is eager to deepen her learning and action amidst the vibrant community of worship, discernment, and just service at First Church.

NOVEMBER AT FIRST CHURCH

GBIO Update: Bond Bill & In-District Meetings

Good news in the Greater Boston Interfaith Organizations's Housing Justice Campaign! On October 18, 2023, Governor Healey introduced a bond bill with $1.6 billion dollars of reinvestment in our deteriorating public housing, as well as legislation enabling municipal transfer fees to fund more affordable housing. It's a good bill! Back in June, nearly 50 First Church folks turned out at a big action at Temple Israel—had we and other institutions not shown up in such a powerful way, this bill wouldn't be as strong. So, congratulations! This bill's passage is by no means a sure thing, however, so now our focus shifts to our state legislators. Members of dozens of different GBIO institutions (including ours) are organizing In-District Meetings between state reps and senators and their districts' voters. In the coming weeks, a meeting will take place in just about all of the places that First Church members live, and we'd love for all of you to turn out to it to show your support. If you register at bit.ly/gbioidm you will be told about your specific In-District Meeting as soon as it's organized... Read more
